

Gullivers Travels

Gullivers Travelsx, 309 pp. 8vo. Original red cloth, gilt titles. Two panel color title page illustrations and various color plates and black & white illustrations by Jon Corbino throughout text (many featuring nudes, some suggestively and some rather overtly posed). From the preeminent prose satirist in the English language, a great classic recounting the remarkable journeys of ships surgeon Lemuel Gulliver. For children it remains an enchanting fantasy; for adults, a witty parody of political life in Swifts time and a scathing send-up of manners and morals in 18th-century England.
