

The Lost Stradivarius (Classic Reprint)

Miss Sophia Maltbavers to her Nephew, Sir Edward Maltravbrs, then a Student at Christ Church, Oxford. IS Pauncefort Buildings, Bath, Oct. SI, 1867. Mr DEARE dward, It was your late fathers dying request that certain events which occurred in his last years sliould ie communicated to you on your coming of age. I have reduced them to writing partly from my own recollection, which is, alas! still too vivid, and partly with the aid of notes taken at the time of my br,other sdeath. As you are now of full age, I submit the narrative to you. Much of it has necessarily been exceedingly painful to me to write, but at the same time Tfeel it is better that you should hear the truth from me than garbled stories from others who did not love your father as I did. Your loving A unt, Sophia Maltbavers.
